Subject: Method 1615

Hi, Dr. Fout,

We are considering to offer Method 1615 test to our clients. What do we need? Does your lab offer training to analytical company like us?

I went Phoenix's conference only for one day for qPCR workshop and did not have time for more workshops. I am delighted to see this new method with a lot of updates. We have one published method setup in lab, but we need to run Method 1615 for sure.

Regards

Charlie
